John Tuttle of SERVPRO of Roanoke, Montgomery & Pulaski Counties Named “VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR” by The Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce

Christiansburg, VA November 13, 2009 – John Tuttle, Business Development Coordinator, for SERVPRO of Roanoke, Montgomery & Pulaski Counties has been named “Volunteer of the Year” by the Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce. John was presented this award at the Chamber’s Annual Banquet & Awards Gala on Friday, November 13, 2009 at the Event Center in Christiansburg, VA. The Chamber honored businesses, leaders, volunteers, sponsors, and members who have fostered the work and ideas that the Chamber has championed over the last year.

The Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce was formed in March 2003 when the Blacksburg Regional Chamber of Commerce and the Christiansburg-Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce merged.

The Mission of the Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce is to promote and develop a positive environment for the operation and growth of business in Montgomery County and the New River Valley.
